

Data Protection – GDPR 2018

Southern First Aid Training Ltd will use data generated from this website and its other training activities in line with current Data Protection and GDPR 2018 regulations.

Data will be kept no longer than required and if requested all data about suppliers, inquiring companies and individuals, and course candidates will be removed from all our systems. Students' data will be used for official certification and re-qualification purposes when required.

Southern First Aid Training Ltd will contact companies and individuals by email to keep them up-to-date with First Aid regulations and reminders, and occasionally by phone.

The security of all personal information is important to us and Southern First Aid Training Ltd will endeavour to deal with all data protection issues promptly and efficiently in line with our Data Protection Policy.

If you have any issues with the use of personal data and are not satisfied with our response to your issues you are free to contact the Information Commissioner's Officer take your complaint further.

Note – Southern First Aid Training Ltd will never pass on your company or other personal data for marketing purposes and you can unsubscribe from any of our lists at any time.